Fortunato - four decks of sophisticated fun.

Over 200ft of classic style, dramatic ideas, originality and luxury.

Immaculate interiors, expansive exteriors, faultless service, incredible food.

Built at Feadship without compromise in 2000

Rebuilt by Feadship without compromise in 2005.

Relax, laugh, entertain, indulge.

It's lucky to be fortunate. (Or is it fortunate to be lucky?)

WARMTH OF FRIENDSHIP

LOVE OF LIFE

Forward, aft, sun, bridge and main decks are set for sunbathing, lounging, reclining or dining. Under sun or shade, have a party for one or everyone. By contrast, you can always find a quiet corner for peace and quiet or an afternoon snooze.

While the yacht is like an island, there are others to explore. Fortunato has over sixty pieces of sports equipment to choose from. (And the expert crew will teach, help or just watch over you as you try them out.) Swim or scuba, jet or water ski, take the 47ft Wally tender for some shopping or arrive for a buffet lunch at your private beach club.

After the heat of the day, step into the large Jacuzzi. Stay where you are as the deck is transformed into an outdoor cinema. Lounge on the enormous sunbed or lie back in the warm water and choose from over 1000 films including one made especially by the crew to revue the day's activities. Waterproof controls supplied, naturally.

Life on deck takes many forms at many levels. Breakfast could be anything from a choice of coffees, fruit salad and galley-baked breads to pancakes or the full English repertoire.

Try out the forward sun deck, shaded by a lofty awning. This same space is sublime in the evening with a full bar, revolving observation chairs and side tables creating the atmosphere of a casual Riviera restaurant.

Automatic glass doors connect the forward and aft sections and this entire deck opens out to become one of the yacht's largest entertainment areas. The cinema screen, powerful state-of-the-art music system and lighting are all Creston controlled and sixty feet up from the sea, this deck is an exhilarating vantage point.

The Master Suite is a master class of style and comfort. The standards set here are carried throughout the guest staterooms. Silk carpets were hand-made in Tibet, cherry panelling is Dutch craftsmanship at its finest and Tempurpedic mattresses were developed by NASA.

The master suite's twin bathrooms have a shower, oval Jacuzzi bath in the male and straight edge bath in the female. Next to the king-size bed are twin chocolate brown, velvet chaise-longues and an orange double daybed. A mirrored door opens to reveal a walk-in wardrobe. The cherry cabinet at the foot of the bed conceals a retracting 40" plasma screen linked to the Kaleidescape film library and satellite television system. The study is equipped with a wide-screen multimedia PC set up for each new guest, Wi-Fi high speed internet and email access.

Zero speed stabilisation ensures a sound sleep whilst high-density insulation makes Fortunato one of the quietest yachts afloat.
